

External Committee Members Appointments

The Law Society (“the Society”) represents solicitors in England & Wales and has over 160,000 members across the world. The Society’s role is to represent, promote and support solicitors in England and Wales, and internationally.

The Society is governed by its Council which sets the strategic direction of the Society’s work. Under the Society’s governance structure established in 2018, a Board was established, supported by two committees, the Membership and Communications Committee (“MCC”) and the Policy and Regulatory Affairs Committee “PRAC”.

Applications are now sought for 2 external persons for membership to each of the Committees, making 4 vacancies in total. Applicants do not have to be solicitors or qualified lawyers. The Society is particularly interested in receiving applications from individuals with experience of one or more of the following:

- Membership organisations and related income generation
- Policy formation
- Regulation
- Digital Communications
- Membership services

The ideal candidates will show a strong commitment to the values of the Society, the interests of its members and the public and to ensuring equality, diversity, and inclusion in all the activities of the Society. Experience of the development (through consultation) and implementation of strategy, business planning, budgetary discipline, with effective oversight to support delivery will be an advantage.

The roles are unremunerated although reasonable expenses will be reimbursed. Committee members will serve a term of three years, renewable for one further term.

The deadline for applications is 12.00 noon on Wednesday 29 January. Applications should be sent to appointments@lawsociety.org.uk. Late applications will not be accepted.

Interviews will take place at 113 Chancery Lane on Tuesday 11 February between the hours of 9 to 5. You will be given a one-hour time slot via email if chosen for interview. If you cannot attend an interview on 11 February, we cannot guarantee an alternative date will be available.
